STUDENT COMPLAINTS POLICY

In the event of a dispute between an individual student and Taylors College, internal procedures are in place to facilitate the resolution of the dispute. A summary of these procedures follows.

1. Code of conduct, attendance and discipline

Students are expected to abide by the terms and conditions of enrolment and the published rules and code of conduct of Taylors College. Disciplinary procedures will be applied in the event of a breach of these rules. All staff are expected to apply Taylors College’s policy and rules fairly and without favour, but if a student considers that this has not occurred, the student may refer the matter to a senior staff member. If dissatisfaction with the decision, the student may refer the matter to the Principal for determination. Independent external mediation may also be sought if the matter cannot be resolved within the school.

2. Service and academic programme

In the event of a student complaint concerning the quality of the service or teaching provided by the school, the student will report the matter to a person in a position of authority within the school. The complaint may either be dealt with by that person, or referred to the Principal for resolution. The Principal will confer with the parties in dispute, and the decision of the Principal will be final. This decision will be conveyed in writing to the parties. If the student remains dissatisfied with the outcome, he/she may seek independent external mediation.

3. Contractual and financial issues

Matters relating to the interpretation of the application, or the payment or refund of money, are stated clearly in the brochure. Any queries relating to course fees and other charges payable to Taylors College (or refund) will initially be dealt with by the Finance and Administration staff. If the student is dissatisfied with the decision, the matter will be referred to the Finance Director of Study Group for determination. If either the action taken or the outcome does not satisfy the student, he/she may write to the Managing Director, who will in turn convey a decision in writing to the student. If the student remains dissatisfied with the outcome, he/she may seek independent external mediation.

4. The Code of Practice for Pastoral Care of International Students

A summary of the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students.

The Code sets standards for educational providers to ensure that:

> high professional standards are maintained > the recruitment of international students is undertaken in an ethical and responsible manner > information supplied to international students is comprehensive, accurate, and up-to-date > students are provided with information prior to entering into any commitments > contractual dealings with international students are conducted in an ethical and responsible manner > the particular needs of international students are recognised > international students under the age of 18 are in safe accommodation > all providers have fair and equitable internal procedures for the resolution of international student grievances.

Full details of what is covered can be found in the Code itself. The Independent Education Appeal Authority (IEAA) is an independent body established to deal with complaints from international students about pastoral care aspects of advice and services received from their education provider.

The IEAA enforces the standards of the Code of Practice.

If your concerns have not been resolved by Taylors College’s complaint process, you can go to the IEAA website at http://www.justice.govt.nz/tribunals/international-education-appeal-authority.
